Lieutenant General W. E. Potts, USA
Deputy Director
Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20301

Dear General Potts:

We were disappointed to read in your letter of 31 August 1973 that the Defense Intelligence Agency would be unable to provide any billets for assignment to the interagency Information Science Training Program now being conducted by the Central Intelligence Agency. The disappointment is further heightened in view of the substantial investment CIA has made in both staff and facilities to sustain the Program, and particularly in view of our planning on the promised support as stated in the letter of 14 April 1973 from Admiral de Poix.

We hope you will be able to reconsider your decision and find some means for making the instructional positions available. Support from DIA and throughout the Intelligence Community is a key factor in continuing the Program as an interagency activity.

Sincerely,

/s/ Harold L. Brownman

Dear Mr. Brownman:

STAT The Commandant of the Defense Intelligence School, [] has advised me that in accordance with the notification provided in your letter of 24 May 1973, you have completed the relocation of the CIA Information Science Training Program to CIA training facilities. I wish to express my appreciation for your earlier than expected response to our needs for additional space at the School, and to wish you success in your new location. You may be assured that [] [] will continue to make the School's computer terminal facilities available on an interim basis pending final completion of the installation and hook-up of computer terminals in your own spaces.

The current situation with regard to personnel, as you may know, is extremely tight for DIA this fiscal year. A significant cut is expected. The prospects for future years are worse. Consequently, I am unable to provide any DIA billets for assignment to the CIA Information Science Training Program at this time. Guest lecturers will, however, be provided upon request to the extent feasible in this period of reduced personnel assets.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM E. POTTS
Lieutenant General, USA
Acting Director
